Administration Report:

- Thank you for Teacher Appreciation Week. Several nice emails, lunch and treats; they were well received. Last week of January was very good timing for staff morale.
- Basketball is wrapping up. LG had 10 teams this year, the most of any schools. Grade 7 team in playoffs next week.
- School audit approaching. Lloyd George may be picked and we are well prepared.
- Report cards go home Thursday, March 12.
- SKSS Counsellors visit Grade 7's Feb.26 @1:15
- Pink Shirt Day Wed. Feb 26. Very low incidents of bullying at LG this year.
- The students enjoyed Magician Clint Gray's classroom presentations, it reflected in ticket sales.
- Young Author's Conference is May 1. Entry manuscripts are due by March 6.
- Young Artist's Conference is April 29 for grades 4-7. Organized by Mme. Kilmartin.
- Student Learning Survey now open, grades 4 and 7. Sending a link to parents soon.
- Mme. Ramunno is now on maternity leave. Mme. Prince and Mme. Diana to fill in for the remainder of this school year

Treasure's Report:

- January 2020 bank transactions presented

Fundraising Report:

- A comparison rundown of fund-raising profits from last year and this year. Chapters gift cards and Coffee sales are down this year, but Art Cards and Growing Smiles went up.
- Tanya presented new fundraising ideas, including Jerky sales, frozen cookie and muffin dough, and FundScrip, a gift card fundraiser.

New/Tabled Items:

- Pancake Breakfast was a great success, everything ran very smoothly. Big thank you to Tanya and Ken for showing up early to take charge and direct all the volunteers, and thank you to the grade 7's for all their help. Total cost was $255. PAC received a very thoughtful handmade thank you card from Mme. Lafleur's class.
- Magique with Clint Gray is this Friday February 26 in the gym @6:30. Pre-purchased tickets will be delivered to classrooms on Thursday. Tickets will be available at the door.
