Adopting of October 2022 minutes, 1st Tanya, 2nd Meiling, PASSED

Treasurer's Report:

- Meiling presented the September and October 2022 bank account transactions.

Fundraising Report:

- Art Cards will be sent home this week
- Purdy's and Winter Greenery will be ready for pick up Dec.6

Administration Report:

- Great to have parents back in the school for parent/teacher interviews.
- Christmas Winter concert has been moved to the Lloyd George gym. The Sagebrush Theatre has a strict fire code capacity limit that we can not work around. The K-5 concert will be Monday, December 12 @1:30pm and 6:30pm.
- The grade 6&7 Winter Band Concert will be December 8 @6:30pm.
- Volleyball is wrapping up this week, basketball starts right after Christmas break.
- Skating starts this week.
- District Language Coordinator is organizing many French culture events with LG.

New/Tabled Items:

- PAC will not record the Christmas Winter Concert this year as it is in the gym and open to parents.
- PAC made a motion to bring back their annual Pancake Breakfast in February 2023. 1st Hayley, 2nd Meiling, PASSED
- DPAC has 10 FoodSafe certificates available for PAC to utilize.
- Linda followed up with DPAC, the School District, and the donor regarding the $1000 donation from the Surerus Murphy Joint Venture Company. There was no conflict of interest for the PAC to receive the funds in exchange for 100 handmade Christmas pictures or cards. However, due to the time constraint, the company moved on to another school.
- Meiling clarified the DPAC or our PAC must have a bylaw in place to refuse corporate donations.

Correspondence/Clubs:
